2020 Gevrey-Chambertin Les Goulots 1er Cru

Color: Red

93

Drinking Window: 2026 - 2046

Neal Martin, September 2024

The 2020 Gevrey-Chambertin Les Goulots 1er Cru has a more dense, compact bouquet, showing darker fruit than its peers with a discreet marine element. Returning after ten minutes, there is real complexity and terroir expression. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly chalky tannins, a crisp line of acidity, more sapidity and bite than Boillot's Champonnet, and all that is missing is a little persistence that a more propitious lieu-dit might have given. Still, this is very fine. Tasted blind at the Burgfest tasting.

2020 Morey-Saint-Denis Les Millandes 1er Cru

Color: Red

94

Drinking Window: 2027 - 2048

Neal Martin, September 2024

The 2020 Morey-Saint-Denis Les Millandes 1er Cru has a well-defined bouquet: a mixture of red and black fruit, a hint of sous-bois and truffle, quite classic in style. The palate is medium-bodied with fine structure, grippy and saline, fresh and vibrant, with a lovely sense of balance and poise on the finish. This is a classy offering. Bravo. Tasted blind at the Burgfest tasting.
