

BURGFEST – Jasper MORRIS

2021, Clos St-Denis Grand Cru, Domaine Heresztyn-Mazzini

Crimson to ruby, rather reluctant to express itself on the nose, though I do perceive depth. A little coffee note presumably from the oak regime. Dark berry fruit, not quite reaching full blackberry, and there is a fresher core to the wine to keep a degree of balance. A wine which began in rather a backward phase now kicks on at the finish. Really developing well, a complete and harmonious Clos St-Denis. Tasted Sep 2025.
