Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Vieilles Vignes 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin

(/tastings/view/630040)

50% whole bunch, 25% new oak. Cask sample.

Simple nose, but the black fruit really comes through on the palate, giving rich, thick, mouth-filling concentration. Finely polished tannins, just enough acidic refreshment and moderate persistence. (RH)

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Les Jouises Vieilles Vignes 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin

(/tastings/view/630041)

50% whole bunch, 20% new oak. Cask sample.

Dense, chalky texture with compact cherry fruit and piquant spice. Very savoury and concentrated. Exhibits all the power of Gevrey-Chambertin – a good reflection of the terroir. Almost brutish in its intensity. (RH)

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Les Songes 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin

(/tastings/view/630152)

Thick black fruit, furry tannins, dry and austere and seems to deny the generosity of the vintage. Tightly clenched. (RH)

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, La Perrière Premier Cru 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin

(/tastings/view/630042)

50% whole bunch, 30% new oak. Cask sample.

Heavy, tub-thumping style, celebrating all the volume of Gevrey. Retains savoury charm, and there is a touch of milk chocolate for complexity on the finish. Lengthy and full of promise.

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Les Milandes Premier Cru 2017 Morey-St-Denis (/tastings/view/630043)

50% whole bunch, 30% new oak. Cask sample.

Weighty and dense, though less so than their Gevrey-Chambertins, and there is a sweep of verdant herby character making it feel more lifted and fragrant. Long, perfumed finish. (RH)

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Les Goulots Premier Cru 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin (/tastings/view/630163)

Spicy and piquant on the nose, powerful dark fruit on the palate and compact, heavyweight tannins on the palate. Traditional and spot-on for appellation. (RH)

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Champonnet Premier Cru 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin (/tastings/view/630164)

Cranberry and rhubarb fruit. Furry tannins on the palate, giving a very chewy finish. Dense and rich, but nothing too ripe – very much a more severe style. (RH)

Dom Heresztyn-Mazzini, Grand Cru 2017 Clos St-Denis (/tastings/view/630044)

60% whole bunch, 50% new oak. Cask sample.

Mint, nettle, cherry liqueur, firm but powdery tannin and a long, powerful persistence on the finish. Lovely tar and liquorice character adding complexity to the generous finish. Excellent. (RH)
